

Itamar Marcus, founder and director of Palestinian Media Watch, for over 20 years has researched the Palestinian Authority (PA) world, and has written hundreds of reports and articles on PA activities, statements, education, sports, culture and other frameworks the PA controls, as it relates to the peace process. Marcus was appointed by the Israel Government in 1999 to represent Israel in negotiations with the PA on incitement in the “Trilateral Anti Incitement Committee,” chaired by the United States. Marcus makes regular presentations to legislators, governments, and other decision makers about the PA, as it works with politicians across the political spectrum. Marcus has made numerous presentations to members of the Foreign Affairs Committee of Congress and gave testimony at a hearing in the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Labor, Health, Human Services, and Education. In 2023, Marcus had met with and or made presentation to members of parliaments from, Sweden, Germany, the Netherlands, Belgium, Ireland, Spain and the European Parliament. His book Deception, Betraying the Peace

Process was acclaimed by the founder of Human Rights Watch, Robert Bernstein, as "one of the most important books you handle in your lives."
